Concerts & Recitals

Student Performance Hour

Friday, March 15, 2013 ♦ 1:45 p.m.
Performance Center ♦ Mason Hall

PROGRAM

Alphorn .....Richard Strauss
(1864-1949)

On Alphorn sands, I hear which calls me from a far. Does it sound from the woodland court? Does it sound from blue air? Does it sound from mountain heights, from the flower rich valley where only I go and stand, hearing in secret agony with play and joyful dance? Lonely with me alone, sands without ever being silent sounding deeply within the heart. If ever I found the place from where it sounds and never will this heart recover until it fades away.

Anna Stuart, Mezzo Soprano
Keri Parrack, Piano

Lied der Mignon .....Franz Schubert
(1797-1828)

Only one who knows longing knows what I suffer! Alone and cut off from alljoy, I look into the firmament, in that direction.

Nessun Dorma.....Giacomo Puccini
(1858-1924)

Jordan Williams, Trombone
Christopher-Joel Carter IV

An Die Musik ..... Franz Schubert
O, wond'rous art, in countless gray and darkened hours, when life's most bitter taste of loneliness was mine. Have you transported my heart to warm and happy meadows, and so, you've offered me joy and fierce endurance, your magic beauty, your love, and peace. Sometimes your harp pours forth a sigh of passion, so sweet a blessed chord in melodies of old, then heaven's doors with hours of love does open. Oh, gracious art, for these I thank you so! Oh, gracious music, I thank you so!

Ariel B. Jones, Mezzo Soprano
Keri Parrack, Piano

Dolente imagine di Fille mia ..... Vincenzo Bellini
(1801-1835)

Mournful image of my Fille, why are you so agonized next to me? What more do you desire? I have wept my eyes out onto your ashes up to now. Do you fear that, forgetful of the sacred vows. I could be ignited to another flame? Spirit of Fille, rest in peace; inextinguishable is our old passion.

Kristin Griffin, Mezzo Soprano
Keri Parrack, Piano

Abendsegen .....Engelbert Humperdink
From Hansel and Gretel (1854-1921)

Horombees ..... Paul Basler
