Self-Disclosure Introduction
Jacksonville State University (JSU) is committed to maintaining a safe, learning centered setting for all persons in the community. In support of this commitment, JSU requires all applicants to answer questions related to disciplinary history at educational institutions and felony history. Previous disciplinary action and/or felony history will not automatically bar applicants from admission but will require review. Applications requiring review should arrive at least one month prior to start of classes.

Self-Disclosure Questions | All students must answer these five questions:
Are you on academic probation from last college attended?  Yes  No  Never attended college
Are you on academic suspension from last college attended?  Yes  No  Never attended college
Are you on disciplinary probation from last college attended?  Yes  No  Never attended college
Are you on disciplinary suspension from last college attended?  Yes  No  Never attended college
Have you ever been convicted of a felony?  Yes  No
If yes, provide a brief explanation of each conviction on a separate sheet of paper.
