

Honors Program-Wide Advising Guide

Facts to Know

- Your official advisor is from your major! While we will gladly assist in selecting courses, your trial schedule must go through your academic advisor.
  - How to find your advisor step-by-step: Log in to MyJSU > Click 'Student' on Left Hand Tab

- Your trial schedule and your Honors Program registration worksheet are different! As said before, the trial schedule goes through your academic advisor. The registration worksheet is for our records, so we can approve you for priority registration. This allows you to sign up for classes earlier than normal.
- Remember to attend two Honors meetings before priority registration
- Priority registration is Friday, November 5th, so please turn in all your forms by November 1st.

Where to Find Appropriate Materials

- You can pick up your trial schedule and Honors Program registration worksheet at Martin Hall 104, or you can find it online.
  - Go to <http://www.jsu.edu/honors-program/> then click the 'Current Students' tab.

- Each major has certain required classes. Go to your department webpage to see a suggested plan of study.

Schedule Planning

- For schedule planning, Schedule Planner on My JSU is a great resource.
  - You can find it this way: Log In to MyJSU > Click 'Self Service Banner' > Click 'Student' > Click 'Registration' > Click 'Schedule Planner' > Select 'Spring 2022'
  - Once there, you may add the courses you want to take and generate many different schedules.
  - If you find one you like, add it to the cart.
