

Friends of Houston Cole Library

Kathryn Tucker Windham

October 27, 1998

7:30PM

Houston Cole Library

Kathryn Tucker Windham

Kathryn Tucker Windham grew up in Thomasville, Alabama. She graduated from Huntingdon College in 1939, and was awarded an honorary doctorate there in 1979. She worked as a newspaper reporter for the Alabama Journal, the Birmingham News, and the Selma Times-Journal. She has written 19 books and has a national reputation as a storyteller. She also has served as an essayist on National Public Radio's "All Things Considered," and as a consultant on several public broadcasting documentaries.