

Friends of Houston Cole Library

Houston Cole Memorial Lecture

March 10, 1998

7:30PM

Houston Cole Library

Wayne Greenhaw is a freelance writer whose latest book is Alabama: Portrait of a State. The author also has three novels, a collection of short fiction, seven non-fiction books, and two plays. He has articles published by the New York Times, Travel HOLIDAY, Reader's Digest, and The Atlantic Monthly. He has worked extensively for Alabama tourism, and he served as director of the Alabama Bureau of Tourism from 1993-1995. His last novel, King of Country, received favorable notices; Harper Lee referred to it as "splendid," saying the novel "fascinated" her.