Gretchen am Spinnrade Franz Schubert
(1797-1928)

*My peace is gone, my heart is heavy, I will find it never and never more. Where I do not have him, that is the grave, the whole world is bitter to me. My poor head is crazy to me, my poor mind is torn apart.
For him only, I look out the window only for him do I go out of the house. His tall walk, his noble figure, his mouth's smile, his eyes' power, and his mouth's magic flow, his handclasp, and ah! His kiss! My peace is gone, my heart is heavy, I will find it never and never more.
My bosom urges itself toward him. Ah, might I grasp and hold him!
And kiss him, as I would wish, at his kisses I should die!*

Christina Booker, Soprano
