1:00 PM CEREMONY

Riley Green

Alumni Speaker

CMA and ACM Award winner Riley Green has been compelling Country music fans to raise a drink, shed a tear, and, above all, celebrate where they are from since first releasing his self-titled EP in 2018. Songs like the No. 1

2X-PLATINUM hit "There Was This Girl," the 3X-PLATINUM-certified "I Wish Grandpas Never Died," and his chart-topping collaboration with Thomas Rhett, "Half Of Me," have made Green synonymous with what Country music does best: delivering no-gimmick, relatable songs with a timeless feel that make listeners feel something.

An avid sports fan, outdoorsman, and former Jacksonville State University quarterback, Green continues to build on his momentum, earning multiple Academy of Country Music awards and previously being named a MusicRow Breakout Artist of the Year, a CMT "Listen Up Artist," and one of CRS's New Faces of Country Music. Luke Combs joined Green on his PLATINUM No. 1 single "Different 'Round Here (feat. Luke Combs)," the title track of his 2019 debut album, which he re-recorded after seeing the powerful connection fans had with the song.

The singer-songwriter's third studio album, Don't Mind If I Do, produced by Dann Huff, arrived on his birthday, October 18, via Nashville Harbor Records & Entertainment, delivering more of the signature sound fans have come to expect from the Jacksonville, Alabama native who still proudly calls his hometown home. Green later released Don't Mind If I Do (Deluxe), adding six new tracks to the 18-song collection. On a continued hot streak, Green's confidence shines throughout the project, with five solo-written tracks including standouts "Jesus Saves," the 3X-PLATINUM "Worst Way," and the title track, which reunites him with his "You Look Like You Love Me" duet partner. Green recently announced his 2026 Cowboy As It Gets Tour, set to hit major cities and arenas nationwide. Additionally, Green made his acting debut on CBS' new TV show, Marshals, a spinoff of the beloved Yellowstone series, where he plays Garrett, a former Navy SEAL.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

In 1895, the INTERCOLLEGIATE CODE of the academic costume followed by most institutions was adopted. The Bachelor's gown is distinguished by its pointed sleeves. The Master's gown has closed sleeves with an opening at the level of the wrist to free the hands. The Doctoral gown has bell shaped sleeves and is faced with three velvet chevrons which may be either black or the color of the department that conferred the degree.

The binding of the hoods shows departmental colors as follows:

Arts, Letters, and Humanities .....	White
Business Administration .....	Drab
Education .....	Light Blue
Fine Arts .....	Brown
Home Economics .....	Maroon
Law .....	Purple
Library Science .....	Lemon
Music .....	Pink
Nursing .....	Apricot
Philosophy .....	Blue
Physical Education .....	Dark Green
Public Administration .....	Peacock Blue
Science .....	Golden Yellow
Social Work .....	Citron
PhD degree in any discipline .....	Dark Blue

The hood is lined with the color or colors of the conferring university. The colors of Jacksonville State University are red and white chevron. At Jacksonville State University, all male graduates wear a black mortarboard cap. The tassel may be black or a departmental color. Female graduates may wear a soft, square-topped, black cap. Doctors may wear a black tassel or a tassel made from gold metallic threads. Faculty members wear the regalia of the university from which they received the terminal degree.

The President wears the regalia of the university for ceremonial occasions. The gown is adorned with a fourth velvet chevron on the sleeve.
